

A budget
recipe good
for all
New Yorkers

Ingredient 1:
Cut use of costly
consultants to save taxpayers millions of dollars.

Ingredient 2:
Close corporate tax
loopholes to make New York's tax system fair for working families.

Ingredient 3:
Expand the bottle
bill to reduce litter,
increase recycling and
fund environmental protection.

BUDGET'S ON!

The governor's budget soup —
a good start for all New York's taxpayers.

Finally, an end to the "Junk Food" state budgets of the past.

Three main ingredients of the governor's budget that PEF endorses are:

1. Saving taxpayers millions of dollars in engineering and information technology costs by reducing the use of costly consultants and relying, instead, on qualified state employees who can do the work better and for less.
2. Closing tax loopholes that allow corporations earning billions of dollars to avoid paying their fair share of taxes. This makes the tax system fairer by reducing the burden on New York's working families.
3. Expanding the bottle bill to cover more types of containers, many of which didn't exist when the original bill was passed. This will reduce litter, increase recycling and provide funds for environmental protection.

It's a recipe good for all of New York.
