

Gov. Pataki, stop playing contract games with PEF members.

Governor, you told us you wouldn't play games with the lives of our members.
Now tell your negotiators! It's been 472 days since we started negotiations, 413 days since our contract expired.

Yet, despite our efforts to meet the needs of New York state, your negotiators refuse to get serious.

We aren't asking to be treated better than other state unions, we just won't take less.

Tell your negotiators to stop playing games with our 52,000 members and their families.

Stop putting a spin on our contract talks, and get serious.

We've earned the right to a fair contract.
