

New York's wealthiest
are helping themselves
to big, fat tax cuts
and tax loopholes, while

the mentally ill are getting a raw deal.

Closing Psych Centers across New York State opens us all up to disaster.

The Executive Budget calls for putting five psychiatric centers across New York State out of business forever, including the Hutchings Psychiatric Center.

Closing these critical mental health facilities will mean incredible hardship and heartache for New York State's mentally ill, their families and their communities.

Closing tax loopholes and placing a temporary surcharge on the personal income tax of the wealthiest New Yorkers would save these vital mental health facilities.

Tell the rich to pay their fair share! Call your lawmakers today, and keep the doors of hope open at the Hutchings Psychiatric Center.
