

We're this close to stopping taxpayer abuse

Tell your state lawmakers to do the right thing, return to Albany to override the veto of the contract disclosure bill.

Taxpayers, you deserve to know if your taxes are being wasted.

The governor vetoed the contract disclosure bill, a bill which was passed unanimously by the New York State Legislature. The bill requires the disclosure of information for contract services entered into by state agencies.

It's time you knew how your tax dollars are spent. Stop Taxpayer Abuse. Tell your legislators it's time to bring accountability and transparency to state government and override the veto of the contract disclosure bill.

Call 1-877-255-9417 or log onto www.pef.org and click on GO PUBLIC and remind the legislators to use their power for the people.
